

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Garretson, South Dakota, is celebrating its centennial; and,

WHEREAS, Garretson is blessed with a proud history, hard-working citizenry, and enduring heritage; and,

WHEREAS, One of these former hard-working citizenry is Marian Henjum; and,

WHEREAS, Marian Henjum makes her living as a painter and free-lance designer/illustrator and now resides in Sioux Falls; and,

WHEREAS, Marian has shown her work widely in the Midwest through juried exhibitions and art festivals, her work is included in many private and public collections throughout the United States, and she has had 17 one-artist's shows and won numerous awards--such as one of the Outstanding Young Women of America; and,

WHEREAS, Marian was selected by the United States Postal Service to design the 1889 South Dakota Centennial Stamp; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this outstanding South Dakotan, who we are proud to call one of our own:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 30, 1989, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Eighth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
